Union College International Programs (Study Away) Withdrawal Policy

The success of study away programs from the Union campus requires student commitment well in advance of the anticipated dates of the term of study. When a student withdraws after having made a commitment to such a program, it may be too late to offer the spot to another student who was willing and able to participate. Also, Union College incurs expenses well before a program begins that cannot be recovered when students withdraw. In the case of mini-terms, withdrawals can jeopardize the viability of the program. The International Programs Withdrawal Policy is designed to prompt students to consider their commitment to the program to which they have applied in light of the financial consequences of withdrawal. This policy applies to all Union -and non-Union study away programs, including mini-terms.

Initial Deposit

A deposit of $350 is required for all programs. Payment of the deposit signifies the Union College student's commitment to participate in the program.

The deposit will be credited on the student's billing account provided that:

- The student fully completes the program, OR
- Union College cancels the program (e.g. on account of security concerns)

The student will forfeit the deposit if the student withdraws from a program or cannot participate in the program, either partially or entirely, for any reason other than Union College canceling the program.

Other Charges/Credits

Item	Prior to Program Start Date	On/After Program Start Date
$600 Study Abroad Fee, if applicable	Credited to student account	Pro-rated based on percentage of time abroad
$50 ($30) Health Insurance Fee for full-term (mini-term)	Credited to student account	No reimbursement
Allowance (meals, internal transportation, cell phone, etc.), if applicable	Credited to student account	Pro-rated based on percentage of time abroad

If you withdraw from the program or do not complete it in its entirety and have received a fellowship, you may be responsible for re-paying it. Contact Financial Aid if you have taken loans from Union.

Additional Withdrawal Fee

Unless one of the exceptions listed below applies, a student who withdraws from participation in a program or is no longer allowed to participate because of Union College disciplinary sanctions will be charged a withdrawal fee in addition to the aforementioned forfeited deposit. The withdrawal fee is based on the date of official withdrawal, as indicated in the table below. Official withdrawal occurs when a student informs the International Programs office of the withdrawal in writing or the International Programs office informs the student of his or her ineligibility to participate.

When Official Withdrawal Occurs	Withdrawal Fee
More than 60 days before the start	$0
59-31 days before the start*	$2000
30 days before the start*	$3150 (mini-term), $3500 (all other programs)
During the program	$3150 (mini-term), $5000 (all other programs)

*If a student withdraws before the start of a program, Union College will make a good faith effort to replace the student with another qualified student or to obtain a refund from its overseas providers; the withdrawal fee will not apply if a replacement student is found or to the extent that the College obtains a refund.

Exceptions to Withdrawal Fee:

Students will not be charged the withdrawal fee if any of the following occurs:

- The student withdraws from Union College for medical reasons during the program in accordance with Union College's medical withdrawal policy.
- A documented medical situation occurs before the start of the program that prevents the student from participating in the program.
- A student becomes ineligible to participate in the program because of insufficient overall GPA.
- A student becomes ineligible to participate if, in spite of following the proper procedures in a timely manner, the student was denied a visa by the host country.
